SUMMARY

The Tokyo Video Festival is a contest to award both professionals and amateurs for their outstanding video works. The main objective of this festival is to promote the creativity of video software as a new style of visual culture.

The first Tokyo Video Festival was held on March 29, 1979. For the second Tokyo Video Festival, we started accepting video works on May 1, 1979. The closing date for the applicants to turn in their compositions was September 10, 1979. The total number of compositions received were 328 (298 from Japan and 30 from abroad).

Four significant trends in this second Tokyo Video Festival:

1) Most of the solicited compositions improved both in contents and picture qualities.

2) More female applicants received awards.

Seven out of the top thirty-five prizes were awarded to women.

Ms. Tomiyo Sasaki who was awarded the Video Grand Prize was one... of these seven talented females.

3) Elementary school children and Jr. high school students showed active participation in the 2nd Tokyo Video Festival. Five video compositions by either elementary school-children or Jr. high school students were presented with awards out of the thirty-five prize winning compositions.

4) The number of submitted video works of art remarkably increased. Seventy-seven video works of art categorized as abstract were received from both Japan and abroad, of which thirteen compositions were recognized with awards.

The Tokyo Video Festival is an annual event and Victor Company of Japan, Limited, is planning to hold the 3rd Tokyo Video Festival in November, 1980. On April 1, 1980 we will start accepting video compositions for the 3rd Tokyo Video Festival. The deadline is September 30, 1980.

For more detailed information, please see the leaflet of the 2nd Tokyo Video Festival and the attached sheets.

"ARTIFACTS" IS A SERIES OF TAPES:
"SYNTAX OF BINARY IMAGES", "ARTIFACTS" AND "TRANSFORMATIONS". AS THE TITLE INDICATES, IS A COLLECTION OF IMAGES INITIATED BY BASIC ALGORITHIMAL PROCEDURES, TO VERIFY THE FUNCTIONAL OPERATION OF A NEWLY CREATED TOOL.

THE "DIGITAL IMAGE ARTICULATOR" OR SIMPLY "IMAGER" WAS DESIGNED AND CONSTRUCTED BY SCHIERT/VASULA SPECIFICALLY FOR THE PURPOSE OF STUDYING REAL TIME VIDEO IMAGE PERFORMANCE. (FOR MORE INFORMATION, SEE "CANTALOUPE" A VIDEO TAPE REPORT ON THE DESIGN, CONSTRUCTION AND USE OF THIS TOOL).

BY "REAL TIME" IT IS MEANT HERE THAT ALL OPERATIONS ARE PERFORMED ON FIELD BY FIELD BASIS, (60 FIELDS PER SECOND OF TELEVISION STANDARD) AND FURTHER INDICATES A SEVERE TIME COMPETITION FOR PROCESSING OF EACH PICTURE ELEMENT. MAINLY FOR THE SAME REASON, IMAGES ARE REDUCED TO 4 BIT DENSITIES (16 STEPS OF GRAY SCALE) AND APPEAR ON T.V. SCREEN AS A MATRIX OF 128 BY 128 ELEMENTS.

"ARTIFACTS" PORTRAY RATHER SIMPLE FUNCTIONS, MOSTLY IN THE RANGE OF BOOLEAN PRIMITIVES AND SIMPLE ARITHMETIC OPERATIONS; OR WHERE MORE COMPLEX CALCULATION IS NECESSARY, A MODEST AMOUNT OF NUMBERS IS CALCULATED FOR EACH NEW FIELD; FOR EXAMPLE 256 OF X AND Y NUMBERS, CONTROLLING FUNCTIONS OF ZOOMING.

THE WORK SUCCEEDED ARTIFACTS IS CALLED "TRANSFORMATIONS".

"ARTIFACTS" WERE MADE POSSIBLE WITH SUPPORT FROM NEW YORK STATE COUNCIL ON THE ARTS.

OBJECTIVES OF THE TOKYO VIDEO FESTIVAL

The Tokyo Video Festival's main objective is to promote the creativity of video software as a new style of visual culture. A wide spectrum of professional as well as amateur video compositions are accepted for this festival. This festival is not only to recognize and award outstanding video works, but it is also a festival where video enthusiasts from all over the world can get together and exchange their messages.

THE 2ND TOKYO VIDEO FESTIVAL

On May 1, 1979 we started accepting video works for the 2nd Tokyo Video Festival. The deadline for applicants to turn in their compositions was September 10th of this year. The total number of compositions received were 328 (298 from Japan and 30 from abroad). Here are some significant facts regarding the 2nd Tokyo Video Festival which created a greater creative impact than the one of the previous year:

(1) The number of compositions increased by 27%.
(2) A new level of video works covered a wider spectrum of categories.
(3) The demographic backgrounds of applicants were wider and more varied. Applicants from all over the world with various demographic backgrounds received awards this year. From all indications of this video festival, video software creativity is being steadily diffused over a broader segment of the video market.

VIDEO TROPHIES

Just a few years ago the television tube used to be monopolized by only TV programs being broadcasted from public and private television stations. Since the production of the VTR for home-use, it has been made more accessible for amateurs to produce their home-made video compositions by using video cameras. These trophies which are presented to the prize winners of the Tokyo Video Festival symbolize "Opening of the television picture tube to the vast consumer market by using VTRs."

COMMENTS FROM THE JUDGES

* By Hiroshi Minami
(Professor Emeritus of Hitotsubashi Univ.)
In comparison with the last Tokyo Video Festival, the number of solicited video compositions increased. Also a great number of works from the younger generations were submitted. I think this indicates that the number and types of those people who enjoy making their own video software has been steadily increasing recently. Also I would like to point out that the level of all compositions was higher technically and artistically.

* By Nobuhiko Ohbayashi
(Film Director)
The development of the VTR for home-use has made video software creativity more and more accessible to consumers. I feel this is part of the reason why video software has improved recently. Every person has a different personality and an opinion, therefore I feel that every video composition should have a different style based on this difference. I'm looking forward to seeing many more unique video works which reflect a greater creative insight in the upcoming Tokyo Video Festivals.

* By Masahiro Ogi
(Movie & Audio Critic)
What impressed me the most at the video festival this time was that both young as well as middle age applicants held the top prizes. As expressed in the awarded compositions video is "communication by all generations and classes." I'm expecting the next Tokyo Video Festival to take bigger strides in composition, content, and uniqueness.

* By Hakudo Kobayashi
(Video Producer, Lecturer of Tama College of Arts)
There was a noticeable increase in video compositions this year, and the level of most of these compositions was unbelievably improved. The video software composing have been slowly but steadily diffused. I feel that we received only a few compositions that really tried to explode with a powerful message in a unique style. I'm anticipating to see many of these types of video works in the next Tokyo Video Festival.

* By Osamu Tezuka
(President of Japan Animation Association)
While judging the video compositions of this Tokyo Video Festival, I felt that there were fewer video works with sharper and more vivid ideas. I have this opinion in spite of the fact that we received more video compositions whose levels were on the semi-professional level. I'm looking forward to seeing the video works that present new materials and ideas in the next festival.

* By Katsumi Yamaguchi
(Video Producer, Professor of Tsukuba Univ.)
I was thrilled to judge the compositions for this second Tokyo Video Festival because we received many video works by noted video artists from the U.S.A. I feel that using video as an expressive medium will develop a new style of visual culture. Furthermore, I'm convinced again that the video has no creative barriers.

* By Keiichi Sakai
(Manager of Advertising and Public Relations in Victor Co. of Japan, Ltd.)
It was a nice surprise for me to receive a greater number of video works which had more sophisticated qualities than those of last year. Paralleling the development of video hardware, improvements were made in software such as picture quality and colors. We also received more works from female applicants. This created fresh viewpoints which impressed me very much and reassured me the infinite possibility of the video.
Video Grand Prize

BUBBLING

3/4" - 20' - color

By Tomiyo Sasaki (Video Artist, U.S.A.)

Blowing bubbles with bubble gum. Many men and women appear one after another in front of the camera and show their skills at blowing bubbles. There are solo performances, duos and trios... from a technician who can make a double or triple bubble to a poor performer who drops the gum from his mouth, we see every kind of action on the T.V. screen. The video artist, by making a collage of the performances, has effectively isolated every detail of blowing a bubble. We see a strange world where expressions of the adults who chew bubble gum are sometimes humorous, expressive, and sometimes erotic. This is a video work which draws the audience into a kind of wonderland.

COMMENTS FROM THE JUDGES

This outstanding video composition utilizes colors and editing techniques that produce an excellent and imaginative piece of video work. What really made this piece of work worthy of high appraisal was the author's ability to demonstrate accurately the characteristics of the video. Instead of using words, the author chose bubble gum as a new means of communication. This was effectively accomplished by recording various explosive sounds and several humorous expressions. This nonverbal way of communication created in this composition signifies a stream of creativity which explores a new world of expressions.

Works of Excellence

HIRONAKA, THE BRAND NEW FIRST GRADER

1/2" 19'31" - color

By Atsushi Horiguchi (Self-employed, Japan)

The time has finally come for Hironaka, the only son, to become a first grader. The night before the first day of school his mother asks him some questions in preparation. Wearing clothing a little too large for him, and with a knapsack on his back, round-eyed Hironaka, full of zip, is answering his mother. Then the next evening at home, his father is helping prepare for a party to celebrate Hironaka's first day at school. Since this tape was made to be sent to Hironaka's grandmother, the greeting towards the camera is warm, and the T.V. screen is filled with Hironaka's most cheerful enthusiasm. A masterpiece of home video tape art.

COMMENTS FROM THE JUDGES

The author selected a theme which is a large part of his daily life. Since the content of this composition is so much a part of his life, the composition depicts quite naturally the things which he experiences in his daily life. This is a vivid composition which captured one phase of Japanese life very effectively through the eyes of a Japanese.

PEDDLERS OF THE SEASONS

3/4" 19'31" - color

By Toshiaki Ono (Self-employed, Japan)

This composition is about the young people who sell insecticide-free vegetables from two-wheel carts and pick-up trucks. The author video-tapes his fellow workers at work and lets them talk about their attitudes toward their job and their purpose in life. This peddlers' life, which forces them to go to the main market to buy their merchandise early in the morning, is excellent in portraying this hard and difficult life. These peddlers learn early in the game that "being the town's clock is the secret of this business". Also they feel that "the happy reactions of their customers when they see the fresh vegetables and fruits of the season is the most rewarding." Neither in the author nor in his fellow subjects is there any trace of pre-nse. A camera report which revives one phase of life through television.

COMMENTS FROM THE JUDGES

This video composition expresses beautifully the warmhearted atmosphere of several Japanese peddlers' lives. This is done by recording interactions between the youths who sell vegetables and the housewives who buy them. You'll be able to find a touch of warmth and traditional Japanese interpersonal relationship which you might have forgotten in your busy city life.
of a scanning process. The motion of the cars is video-taped from high above. The images are modified by means of pictures of UFOs which he photographed with his video camera. It is a record work. He appeals to public organizations to have a more positive attitude toward UFOs and to have more projects for studying and tracing them.

FALL FESTIVAL

3/4" - 20' - color

By Yuka Ishizaka (Self-employed, Japan)

A mob of dashing youths in hapi coats gathers to the melody of "Kanto-nagare-uta." The leader and the bearers, shouting in unison, and waving the Mikoshi (portable shrine) engulf the T.V. screen. The camera persistently follows the parade of the Mikoshi that women and even foreigners join in to carry.

ANOTHER DAY

3/4" - 14' - B/W

By Joel Gold (Video Artist, U.S.A.)

A day in the life of a young man. A documentary poem of a day in the city where boredom and restlessness are mixed. Early in the morning, still wrapped in his blanket in bed, he bursts into a song, "Another day ......". He shaves and goes out with a sign on his back reading "Don’t shoot. I am a man."

THE OUTRAGEOUS 5TH GRADERS

1/2" - 14'45" - B/W

By A group of students in Taira Elementary School (Japan)

This drama was produced by the members of a class of 5th graders. When the teacher (played by a student) disappears from the class room, the class room becomes a disco. When the teacher comes back the students are quiet, but they soon change into rambunctious kids. In the narration at the end of this tape a lovely voice says "We really shouldn’t be doing things like this."

EQUINOXE

3/4" - 19'20" - color

By Ludwig Rehberg Jr. (Video Artist, F.R. Germany)

This video work of art uses a wide range of machines such as a synthesizer, kinescope recorder, and oscilloscope, etc. Based on the image of a waterfall, various geometrical patterns are depicted in beautiful stripes, and vivid gradation of color is set to a background of energy filled synthesizer music.

ANIMATION

3/4" - 7'30" - color

By Kiyoko Matsumoto (Company Employee, Japan)

An omnibus of three works presented in animation. In the first animated work, line drawings of an elephant change into various shapes. The second piece of work uses a color pencil illustration of a girl dancing to up-tempoed music. The last work shows an extravagant image transformation.

THE ONLY REMAINING PORTER

3/4" - 19'36" - color

By Broadcasting Club in Miyuki Jr. High School (Japan)

At Yokohama Station, there is only one porter left to carry your luggage. Mr. Fujimoto, nearly 70 years old, is the only one remaining. The camera follows Mr. Fujimoto while he is performing his work. Also we get to listen to him tell some Jr. High Students that he has no doubts about this way of life.

CLIMBING THE STEPS

1/2" - 1'5" - color

By Giro Kato (Artist, Japan)

Only the emergency fire escape stairway in a tall building is shown, in this work. The author, not shown climbs the stairway which seems endless. In the beginning, the camera is steady and only his footsteps are heard, but gradually the camera gets shaky and his breathing becomes harder and louder.

VIOLIN POWER

Open - 10' - B/W

By Steina Vasulka (Video Artist, U.S.A.)

This experimental art work was made by feeding the sound signal from the violin into the T.V. video circuit. Due to this unusual connection, the sound of the violin affects the picture of the player on the screen, changing the picture in various ways. Depending on the volume, pitch, and tone, various results are produced on the T.V. screen.
