ALBUQUERQUE UNITED ARTISTS

Presents

WEEK I

Friday September 5 - 8:00 p.m. Ned Sublette
Ned will come to us with a night of-cautious, authentic, and beautiful Western Ballads in a style influenced by North Texas Angles, grown up in Fort Worth. Some Tex Mex flavor. He has gathered these gems at the Athenaeum of N.Y.C., The Ear Inn, N.Y.C., The Western Front, Vancouver, B.C., and at Hippy's Tower Bar on Thursday.
Admission $1.50

Saturday September 6 - 8:00 p.m. Fantasy on Video & "Bill's Friends!" To your Fantasy on Video, come prepared to tell all! Marilyn Atwood, New Mexico's best interviewer, solo percussionist, actress and women's liberator, will do the interview with these two unique performers. Come on Friday, September 5th, to see the finished product. Then step into the back room for a special evening with "Bill's Friends," featuring Tim Guralnik and Louise Martini of A Video Bar! Hosted by Marilyn Pittman. A real musical treat with a true New Mexico blend.
Admission $1.50

WEEK II

Friday September 12 - 8:00 p.m. Poets Circle
Orchestrated by Larry Goodell, a revue of new poetry love letters - a once of wave motion going up until it drops - an audience with us.
Admission free

Saturday September 13 - 8:00 p.m. Larry Goodell
Larry Goodell, the first American poet of the arts. The first American poet of the arts. This evening will feature Larry Goodell, the first American poet of the arts. A roomful of poets read one poem after another - a circle of voice motion going until it stops - an audience with us.
Admission free

Sunday Afternoon September 14 - 3:00 p.m. Janet Cannon
Janet, singing of her daily Taos living, her work starting up from the page, or from memory - her ups and downs and her garden peas. She will also give a talk on her current video "Taos poetry." Janet is editor of Crow Call, with a new anti-nuke issue, and has a forthcoming book from Place of Herons Press.
Admission free

WEEK III

Friday September 19 - 8:00 p.m. Steina: Video Artist
Steina Vasulka whose work has shown in Europe as well as the U.S. It is a precursor to the development of electronic arts. She is co-founder of The Kitchen, N.Y.C., and a NEA Foundation Board. She was a NEA Foundation Board. Steina continues to explore the possibilities for generating and manipulating electronic images through a broad range of technological tools and aesthetic concerns. This evening will feature steina Vasulka, the first American poet of the arts. An evening of "Machine Vision" - and others will also be there.
Admission $1.50

Saturday September 20 - 8:00 p.m. Live Abstract Double Feature
A still photography - the first of a two-part series composed by Tom for 10 or so musicians, written specifically for the Downtown Center for the Arts!
Admission $1.50

Sunday September 21 - 7:30 p.m. Tom Guralnik & Orchestra
A local artist whoh has been a regular at the Downtown Center for the Arts. He will perform a piece composed by Tom for 10 or so musicians, written specifically for the Downtown Center for the Arts!
Admission $1.50

WEEK IV

Wednesday September 24 - 8:00 p.m. Space Chippers
Admission $1.50

Friday September 26 - 8:00 p.m. Triple Feature
Local artists who have been seen at the Downtown Center for the Arts. There will be a presentation of a one-woman puppet show. Space Chippers, a local film maker, will also be there.
Admission $1.50

Saturday September 27 - 8:00 p.m. LA Performance Artists: Nancy Angelo & Cheri Gaulke
A two-woman film festival. Nancy Angelo & Cheri Gaulke are two excellent Los Angeles-based video and performance artists who are known for their originality and avant-garde sensibilities. They will present a selection of their work.
Admission $1.50

For information call Tues. - Sat. 11 - 4 p.m. 243-0531

Admission FREE unless otherwise noted.