

Performances and Concerts

WILLIAM AND LOUISE ETRA

8:30 pm
December 3

As part of their continuing daytime exhibition of interactive video, Garden of Electronic Delights, the Etras will present an evening of new single-channel video tapes.

VIDEOTAPES OF THE SOFT MARTIAL ARTS

Saturday, December 4
8:30 pm

Resolution of Conflict, an evening of videotapes dealing with Aikido and Tai Chi Chuan. The tapes on Aikido will be of Morihei Ueshiba and will be introduced by Terry Dobson. Stan Israel of the Shr-Jung Tai Chi Chuan Study Group will introduce the Tai Chi tapes of Professor Cheng Man-Ching.

GUY KLUCEVSEK

Sunday, December 5
8:30 pm

Guy Klucevsek, soloist and composer will present Music for 548 Reeds, a concert of new music for the accordion consisting of four solo works: Differences, Phantasmagoria, Tremolo and Coruscation.

GERARD HOVIGIMYAN

Wednesday, December 8
8:30 pm

Situational slide performance reading: a reality test to produce an emotional charge.

WILLIAM HOOKER

Friday, December 10
8:30 pm

William Hooker, percussionist, with the Reality Unit, will present Mysteries, Parts I & II.

KESHAVAN MASLAK

Saturday, December 11
8:30 pm

Keshavan Maslak, who has played saxophone with a wide variety of performers, from the Supremes to Sam Rivers, will present Conceptual Saxophone and Other Winds, consisting of solo and group compositions. The group is Rhys Chatham, Garrett List and Mark Miller.

BRUCE DITMAS

Sunday, December 12
8:30 pm

Ditmas plays the ARP 2600 and Mini-Moog synthesizers with Moog drum, electric congas and North sculpted drums. The program, Aural Suspension, will feature three solo pieces, Yellow, Soweto, and the title work.

DICKIE LANDRY

8:30 pm
Thursday & Friday December 16&17

Dickie Landry, saxophonist and composer, will present two works: Solo Music for Saxophone and Quad Tape Music for Fifteen Saxophones. The concert will also include a duet with Richard Peck. Both Landry and Peck have played with the Philip Glass Ensemble.

PETER VAN RIPER/ SIMONE FORTI 8:30 pm
Saturday & Sunday December 18 & 19

A collaboration in music and dance, with major areas of solo music including soprano saxophone.

This program of new material evolved from "Big Room", an ongoing, partly improvisational work performed on the West Coast, in Japan, and in New York; most recently at St. Mark's Church.

DAVID MAHLER

8:30 pm
Wednesday, December 29

David Mahler, Music Director of And/Or Gallery in Seattle, will present Sounds in the Air Is Music, a concert of new music, songs, pieces for piano and live electronics.