Dear Woody

It's the end of the season here and I wanted to update you concerning your videotapes in distribution. As more and more universities add video programs to their curriculum and an increasing number of international broadcasters try to introduce independently produced programming into their schedules, the market for your works has continued to flourish. Stuart Hodes, The Kitchen's Executive Director, has promised me that all monies owed as well as an accounting of exhibitions will be prepared for you by the end of the fiscal year June 30. In the meantime, I'll be leaving The Kitchen's Video Distribution program at the end of this month, and a replacement has not yet been found.
